DAY BY DAY ITINERARY

DAY 01 – FR. JULY 15 - DEPARTURE

Today we depart Richmond for our flight to Berlin, with a connection in Newark (EWR).

DAY 02 – SAT. JULY 16 – ARRIVE BERLIN

We arrive in Berlin early this morning where we will be met by our tour manager and private deluxe motor coach. While in Berlin, we'll visit Checkpoint Charlie, the most famous crossing between East and West Berlin during the Cold War. The Bonhoeffer Museum will be our next stop. Dietrich Bonhoeffer, a pastor, professor of theology, and member of the Resistance, consistently and staunchly resisted Hitler's regime, and for this he paid with his life. His book, The Cost of Discipleship, poignantly uses Jesus' Sermon on the Mount to explain what he believed it really meant to follow Christ. Following our tour of the museum, we will travel to Wittenberg, officially Lutherstadt-Wittenberg. Here, along the river Elbe, Martin Luther, following the dictates of his conscience, began the movement that would become the Protestant Reformation. Following check in, we'll celebrate the beginning of the tour with a welcome dinner.

DAY 03 – SUN. JULY 17 - WITTENBERG

Today our tour of Wittenberg will immerse us in the life of Martin Luther. We will visit the Castle Church, where Martin Luther nailed his famous 95 Theses to the door. We'll visit Luther House, his family home, the City Church where he preached, and the "Luther Oak," a tree planted on the site where Luther defiantly burned Pope Leo X's letter excommunicating him from the church! This burning of the "Papal bull" illustrates Luther's courage and determination to stand his ground in the face of persecution. Wittenberg is also the home of Melancthon, a collaborator in theology with Luther, and who stands with Luther and Calvin in the reformation movement. At the end of our day a relaxing dinner awaits us as we conclude our second night in Wittenberg.

DAY 04 – MON. JULY 18 - WITTENBERG / EISLEBEN / ERFURT

This morning we depart Wittenberg and travel to Eisleben, referred to as Lutherstadt Eisleben, one of the oldest towns in the region. In Eisleben we'll see Luther's birthplace and the site of his death. Our tour of Eisleben will continue with a visit to St. Anne's Church and Monastery, where Luther served as vicar and preached his last sermon. Our last stop in Eisleben is the Church of St. Peter & Paul before we travel to Erfurt to tour the Augustinian Monastery and Martin Luther Memorial. We check into our hotel for the next two nights.

DAY 05 – TUE. JULY 19 - ERFURT / EISENACH / ERFURT

Our day takes us from Erfurt to the charming town of Eisenach and a tour of Wartburg Castle. This medieval fairytale castle is a delight to the eye and a favorite of the "locals." Built in 1097, it has survived intact to this day. Here at Wartburg Castle, Martin Luther, after being declared a heretic and sentenced to death, fled and hid under the protection a German prince. While at Wartburg, Luther, who disguised himself by growing a beard and calling himself Juker Jorg, translated the Bible into German. Eisenach is not only significant for events in the life of Martin Luther, it is also significant as the birthplace of Johann Sebastian Bach. We'll tour the Bach House Museum and enjoy a concert featuring Baroque instruments. A visit to St. George's Church will conclude this day's tour before we return to our hotel in Erfurt for the evening.

DAY 06 – WED. JULY 20 – EISENACH / WORMS / HEIDELBERG

Not only did Martin Luther defy the pope, Leo X, he also defied the Holy Roman Emperor Charles V. Today, we will visit the site of Luther's Worms debates where Luther's defiance resulted in his refusal to recant his writings. We will also visit the Worms Reformation Monument. Here in beautiful Heidelberg, the Heidelberg Catechism was composed in 1563. Called "a warm hearted and personalized confession of faith," the Heidelberg was composed originally as a teaching instrument to promote religious unity and is still in frequent use today in reformed churches throughout the world. This evening's dinner will be at a local winery. We check into our hotel in Heidelberg for the night.

DAY 07 – THU. JULY 21 – HEIDELBERG / ROTHENBURG OB DER TAUBER

Today begins with a tour of Heidelberg Castle. The view from Heidelberg Castle is described by Mark Twain in his book A Tramp Abroad as looking "down through shining leaves into profound chasms and abysses where twilight reigns." Next, we travel to Rothenburg ob der Tauber, one of the most well-preserved medieval cities along Germany's famous "Romantic Road." Rothenburg's iconic quaint streets and picturesque storefronts promise an unforgettable experience. After we visit the Altar of the Holy Blood at St. Jakobskirche Rothenburg (St. Jacob's Church), we'll walk along the cobbled streets and visit the famous German Christmas shops.

DAY 08 – FRI. JULY 22 – AUGSBURG / LANDSBERG / OBERAMMERGAU

Our tour along the "Romantic Road" through charming Bavaria includes visits to Augsburg, the oldest city in Bavaria, founded in 15 B.C. on orders of the Emperor Augustus, and inhabited ever since. Landsberg am Lech is on our itinerary for today. With a rich history since its founding in the 1300's, Landsberg am Lech is also famous for more modern history. Here Adolph Hitler was imprisoned in 1924, and here he wrote, with Rudolph Hess, his book Mein Kampf. After leaving Landsberg am Lech, we will visit additional picturesque Bavarian villages along the way to Oberammergau.

DAY 09 – SAT. JULY 23 – OBERAMMERGAU / PASSION PLAY

This morning is free to enjoy the delightful village of Oberammergau that may include taking the cable car to the top of the mountain, the Laber, for a spectacular view of the Ammergau Alps. This afternoon, Part I of the Passion Play begins at 2:30 PM. We break for dinner from 5:00 until 8:00 PM, at which time Part II begins and continues until 10:30 PM. The famous Passion Play has been performed every 10 years since 1634 by the residents of Oberammergau as an act of thanksgiving for having been spared from the bubonic plague that was ravaging the region. It depicts the events in the life of Christ from his visit to Jerusalem to the crucifixion and the resurrection. The play is a captivating and emotive play, a testimony of religious faith and an outstanding cultural event!

DAY 10 – SUN. JULY 24 – OBERAMMERGAU / MUNICH

After breakfast, we transfer to Munich for our flight back to the USA.
